

FRAUSE ACCOUNT SUPERVISOR POSITION

Frause, a leading Northwest-based communications firm well-known for its public relations expertise, is seeking an account supervisor to join its growing Portland team.

PRIMARY RESPONSIBILITIES

- ∞ Oversees a variety of agency accounts and works to build internal teams that effectively support client programs and projects
- ∞ Builds positive team cultures
- ∞ Has bottom-line accountability for a variety of accounts in a variety of industries
- ∞ Provides strategic public relations counsel to advance clients' business objectives and strengthen desired positioning
- ∞ Develops strategic integrated marketing plans and campaigns
- ∞ Manages media relations, corporate/community relations, events and other marketing communications programs as required by the client
- ∞ Oversees and manages client budgets
- ∞ Develops new business opportunities including creating proposals and participating in new business presentations
- ∞ Is an active member of the Portland business and PR community

REQUIREMENTS

- ∞ 8-10 years of experience in communications/public relations
- ∞ Successful track record of managing multiple clients and/or projects
- ∞ Strong written and verbal communication skills
- ∞ Direct client management experience
- ∞ Ability to think critically and problem solve
- ∞ Strong media relations skills with high-level media contacts

CONTACT

Send cover letter and resume to:

Krista Hildebrand
Managing Director, Frause Portland office
khildebrand@frause.com

No phone calls, please.